8th November 2022

Dear Parents/Carers,

Anti-Bullying Week 2022 and Odd Socks Day: Monday, 14th November

Next week is National Anti-Bullying week. This is a key point in our calendar at Pittville as we strive to promote an environment of zero tolerance of bullying in our school. We will start off Anti-Bullying Week 2022 with a bit of fun by taking part in 'Odd Socks Day', a fun, annual event, which celebrates our differences as human beings. We ask that you support this by allowing your son/daughter to come to school in their brightest odd socks on Monday, 14th November. There will be prizes for the best socks (they can even decorate their own – extra points for imagination!) We have had a great time doing this over the last few years and hope for an even bigger response this year.

This year's theme for Anti Bullying Week is 'Reach Out' and this ties in perfectly with the ethos of the Change/Anti Bullying group at school. As you may know, the Change group has been enormously successful in promoting equality and diversity and their various events and campaigns have reached across the whole school and also into the wider community. There will be House assemblies during the week, which, with the help of the Anti-Bullying Ambassadors, will present more information about our approach to Anti-Bullying at Pittville School.

If you wish to make a voluntary donation of £2.00 to the Anti Bullying Alliance, then this can be done using your ParentPay account online where you will find this contribution as an item to add to your basket.

Yours faithfully,

Miss E Allan
Head of Abbott House
